Two Ex-College Football Players Charged With Carjacking, Robberies

Two former college football players were charged today for a spate of robberies in South Los Angeles earlier this week, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Bryce Dixon (dob 7/26/96), who once played tight end at the University of Southern California, and former Louisiana State University defensive lineman Trey Lealaimatafao (dob 9/6/96) were each charged in case BA443180 with five counts of second-degree robbery and one count each of carjacking, attempted carjacking and assault with a deadly weapon.

They are scheduled to be arraigned this afternoon in Department 30 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center.

Prosecutors said both men are accused of committing several robberies in South Los Angeles on Jan. 19. Dixon and Lealaimatafao would stop people, allegedly threaten them and steal their belongings. Both men were arrested several hours later.

If convicted as charged, Dixon and Lealaimatafao each face a possible maximum sentence of more than 15 years in state prison.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles Police Department's Southwest Division.
